Coaching Mapped Directly to the Score Your Visa or Institution Requires | 2026 Edition

01 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

An English test score is rarely just an academic exercise for our clients - it is a fixed line item on a points test, a visa condition, or a university admission threshold, and falling short by even half a band can add months to a migration or study timeline. The Veritas House's test preparation vertical delivers structured coaching for both IELTS (Academic and General Training) and PTE Academic, built by trainers who work alongside our migration advisors so that every candidate trains toward the exact band their specific visa subclass or programme requires, rather than a generic target. This factsheet summarizes our test formats, training tracks, coaching methodology and enrollment options as at August 2026.

06 SCORE BANDS THAT MATTER

LEVEL	IELTS (EACH BAND)	PTE ACADEMIC (EACH COMPONENT, MIN.)	COMMONLY REQUIRED FOR
Competent	6.0	L47 · R48 · W51 · S54	Base entry threshold for several skilled-migration points tests
Proficient	7.0	L58 · R59 · W69 · S76	Mid-tier points bonus on most points-tested visas
Superior	8.0	L69 · R70 · W85 · S88	Top-tier points bonus and highly competitive occupations

Exact score requirements vary by destination country, visa subclass, occupation and institution - the bands above reflect Australia's published GSM points test as a reference point. We confirm the precise target score for each client's specific application before training begins.

WHY SCORE PRECISION MATTERS

Because every component score must independently clear its threshold on most visa-linked tests, a strong overall average with one weak module is not enough - a candidate can miss an entire points band on a single low Writing or Speaking score. Our diagnostic assessment identifies exactly which module carries risk before a candidate books an official test date, so preparation time is spent where it changes the outcome.

07 OUR COACHING METHODOLOGY

Every engagement begins with a diagnostic assessment across all four skills, benchmarked against the candidate's target band. From there, coaching is modular - each session targets a specific sub-skill (task-response in Writing, coherence in Speaking, skimming technique in Reading, note-taking in Listening) rather than generic practice. Candidates sit full-length mock tests under timed, exam-condition settings, with recorded speaking sessions and written work evaluated directly against the official band descriptors, followed by one-on-one feedback before the next module begins.

08 BATCH FORMATS & ENROLLMENT

FORMAT	STRUCTURE	BEST FOR
Regular Batch	Small group, structured weekday sessions	Steady, guided progress over several weeks
Weekend Batch	Small group, weekend sessions	Working professionals with weekday commitments
Fast-Track Intensive	Condensed daily sessions over a short period	Candidates preparing against a near-term deadline
1:1 Personalized	Fully customized schedule and pacing	Candidates needing a tailored focus or flexible timing

Fees, next batch start dates and session counts are confirmed at enrollment based on the candidate's target test, current level and chosen format.

WHY TRAIN WITH THE VERITAS HOUSE

Unlike a standalone test-prep centre, our coaching is set by the same advisory team mapping each client's visa or admission strategy - so the target band is never generic, and a client's migration timeline and test timeline are planned together rather than in isolation. Trainers use official band descriptors and exam-condition mock tests throughout, with structured feedback after every module.
